

24. NO ANS :

If A was the spy then C must be knave and B must be knight. but B cannot be knight. If A was the knave then either B or C none can't be knight. so, if A is knight then B is the spy and C is the knave. ~~the~~ Then all the constraints are fulfilled.